Services & Resources SAPR advocacy services, Chaplain Corps Personnel Mental Health and Medical treatment: Including Sexual Assault Forensic Exam (SAFE) Victim's Counsel (Attorney), protection against retaliation, CATCH Program, Non-Rated Period, Line of Duty (LOD)

CATCH Program: Victims voluntarily submit an anonymous entry into the CATCH database to discover if the suspect in their report may have also assaulted another person. With knowledge of a "potential match", victims can then decide whether to participate in an investigation of a serial offender suspect.

Military Sexual Trauma (MST): The VA (Veterans Affairs) provides free treatment for any physical or mental health conditions related to an experience of MST. You do not need documentation of the MST experience or a VA disability rating to receive care.

MST Coordinator Kansas City: Heather Drake, LCSW, LCAC/(816) 861-4700 ext. 55324

MST Coordinator St. Louis: Rochell Williams - rochelle.williams1@va.gov or Richard Hahn - richard.hahn@va.gov

Retaliation: Individuals who believe they have been retaliated against, related to a reported sexual assault, may report retaliation allegations to: SARC/SAPR VA; Victim's Counsel; DoD Safe Helpline; OSI; Commander, or a commander outside or higher up their chain of command; IG (reprisal only). The following individuals can experience retaliation: adult sexual assault victims with an unrestricted report; adult sexual assault victim's adult family member (e.g., spouse, son, daughter); witnesses, bystanders associated with the report; SARC/SAPR VA; and responders.
